

Claire graduated from Chico State in 2007 with a B.A in English Education. She moved to Davis in 2009 and taught high school English, Drama, and Leadership for 4 years in West Sacramento. She met her husband and business partner Trevor in 2011 and began working with him during her summers off. Together, they grew Sola Bee Farms honey brand into over 200 markets in Northern California. Claire left full-time teaching to focus on Sola Bee in 2012, but continues to work with local youth as a Yolo County CASA. Claire believes in investing in the community, she's served as a DCOC Ambassador for over 5 years. She also served on the End Hunger Yolo Board, Yolo County Young Farmer's and Ranchers committee, and was a member of the California Farm Academy. She most recently became a part time Internship Coordinator for DJUSD and loves being able to work with youth while also being able to invest in her family business. In 2016, Trevor and Claire gave birth to their son Madison. Claire loves living in Yolo County is proud to work in a family agri-business in such a supportive community.