

The Davis Chamber of Commerce Presents

De-Escalation Training

with the

City of Davis Police Department

Tuesday, September 18th

Davis Police Department
2600 5th St. | Davis, CA
6:00pm - 8:00pm

Attend a FREE interactive training with Lt. Bezuglov to learn the proper "How To's" on de-escalating a confrontational situation videos with explicit language may be used

The Davis Chamber of Commerce Professionals Helping to Re-Envision Davis (PHRED) Committee is working with the Davis Police Department to provide tips to business owners, managers and employees on how to de-escalate and diffuse conflict between people. This verbal de-escalation training was developed with the intent to empower people to address unwanted behaviors the moment they surface.

Participants will also learn the basic aspects of escalating behaviors that begin by assessing the behavior, followed by interpreting the message behind the behavior, and finally selecting appropriate response options.

Space is Limited

Coffee & pastries will be offered.

Register at: <https://dcoc-sept-deescalationtraining.eventbrite.com>

Additional training at various times will be offered to accomodate schedules.

Contact Holly (hclaus@davischamber.com) or call 530-756-5160 for additional information.

