

Useful Links

Small Business Development Center provides first-rate, no-cost confidential consulting to small business owners interested in achieving growth and profitability. You do not have to be a member of the Davis Chamber to request these services. Click on the Request Services button and schedule your appointment in Davis

<http://www.capitalregionsbdc.com/>

IRS Small Business and Self-Employed Tax Center believe that one of the best ways to help small business owners is to educate them not only about their tax obligations, but in other aspects that can help their businesses succeed. They have devoted a major portion of their website to small business owners and the organizations that represent them

<http://go.usa.gov/37sJk>

Small Business Administration The Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act (Affordable Care Act or ACA) enacted comprehensive health insurance reforms designed to ensure Americans have access to quality, affordable health insurance. Learn what the law means for small businesses and self-employed business owners

<https://www.sba.gov/healthcare>

Capital Region Business Resiliency Initiative (BRI) has created a resilience toolkit and other preparedness resources. The BRI toolkit is a small-business focused, action oriented guide to resilience and business continuity planning. The toolkit offers clear and concise guidance for planning steps that include understanding risks and environment, assessing readiness, taking action, and engaging with community resilience efforts.

<http://resilientbusiness.org/>

Sacramento Area Sustainable Business Program Since its creation, the Sacramento Area Sustainable Business Program promotes businesses that adopt environmentally friendly practices. The program assists businesses and public agencies in taking steps to prevent pollution and conserve resources. Certified sustainable businesses and public agencies can display the Sacramento Area Sustainable Business placard on their premises and in their advertising. <http://www.sacberc.org/SASB/Pages/default.aspx>